

Mint of the United States at Philadelphia,

MELTING AND REFINING DEPARTMENT,

Philadelphia, 25th July, 1882

Sir

I regret that it becomes my duty to inform you that the Charcoal supplied by Thomas Simkins is wholly unsuited to our purpose, being very soft and powdery, as reported by my foreman, F. C. Garrigues, and witnessed by myself. The Mint Weigher, Mr. Gibson, also reports that Thomas Simkins endeavored to charge the measuring baskets in such a manner as to make them appear to measure beyond their true contents.

Very respectfully
J. H. BoothHon. A. Loudon Snowden,
